SUMMARY OF CASES ACCEPTED DURING THE WEEK OF JUNE 25, 2001

[This news release is issued to inform the public and the press of cases that the Supreme Court has accepted and of their general subject matter. The description or descriptions set out below do not necessarily reflect the view of the court, or define the specific issues that will be addressed by the court.]

#01-73 People v. Crossdale, S097222. (F033853; 88 Cal.App.4th 248.) Petition for review after the Court of Appeal remanded for resentencing and otherwise affirmed a judgment of conviction of criminal offenses. This case concerns whether Penal Code section 502.7 incorporates, as the standard for distinguishing between misdemeanor and felony violations of the statute, the requirement for grand theft that the amount of loss exceed $400.

#01-74 Sakarias on Habeas Corpus, S082299. In this case, which is related to the automatic appeal in People v. Sakarias, 22 Cal.4th 596, the court issued an order to show cause limited to claims that the prosecutor knowingly argued false facts that were inconsistent with those the prosecutor had argued in an earlier trial of petitioner's codefendant.

DISPOSITION

#01-58 Gum v. H.H. Restaurant, Inc., S096902, was dismissed and remanded to the Court of Appeal following notice of settlement of the action.
